A white plastic first aid kit is open, revealing various medical supplies. Inside, there are several white adhesive bandages (band-aids) with orange adhesive strips. A roll of white gauze is visible, along with a pair of green-handled scissors. There are also two white plastic bottles; one has a red cap and the other a black cap. A red plastic cap is also visible. The kit is filled with various other medical supplies, including a roll of white elastic bandage and a package of white gauze pads. The background is white.
